

Market

Sustainable development signifies the responsibility that GAZ-SYSTEM S.A. undertakes towards its environment in fulfilling its business activity.

Sustainable development not only involves caring for the natural environment but also for local communities where the Company is fulfilling its investments and operating gas pipelines. This is also reflected in the way that the Company treats its business partners, customers and interested parties as well as local communities and its own employees.