

Education

The main premise for the performance of educational projects is conveying knowledge and experience to students in the scope of the operations of the natural gas transmission system and forming competent Company staff.