

Application for provision of the transmission service

ACTUAL APPLICATION FORMS FOR PROVISION OF THE TRANSMISSION SERVICE

The gas fuel transmission service will be provided on the terms and within the scope set forth in the Energy Law, pursuant to a gas transmission service agreement.

The gas transmission service agreement is executed following submission and consideration of all dully completed application forms.

We kindly inform, that since 1st June 2016 according to the arrangements in current version of the Transmission Network Code (v25) (TNC), the rules of application process for transmission contract, capacity allocation (PP) and transmission ability allocation (PZ) are changing. According to the arrangements in TNC the submission of above-mentioned applications and their analysis process shall take place by IES (Information Exchange System). For this purpose is necessary to submit an appropriate power of attorney, signed by the representative person in your organization, for the persons authorized to represent your organization in the above-mentioned procedures via the IES.

Download instructions \(PDF\) of electronic application for transmission contract and the PP, PZ and PP/PZ applications in Information Exchange System (IES)

Below you can find form of application for transmission capacity/ability allocation possible to import only in IES system due to electronic application flow from 1st of June 2016.

Download data import form of application for transmission capacity/ability allocation \(PP/PZ\)

Download the list of documents required for execution of the transmission service agreement